FEATURE EVENT

Baltimore, Md., May 1 .-- With the cheers of 5,000 men and women, in Robinson, who succeeded him, was cluding hundreds of society folk from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore. ringing in his ears, Ten Point, one of the cleverest three-year-olds seen in these parts in years, won the Susquehanna Handicap at a mile and sev-yards this afternoon at Havre de Grace. It was the third straight vic-tory for the Aste colt, and he not only beat a fine field of thoroughbreds, but conceded weight for age to everything entered. Ten Point was at all times the public choice, being heavily backed from 3 to 5, to even money post time. Buskin was second and John Furlong third.
